DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

Claim 1 is still rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Narahashi et al (Fig. 1) (of record) for reasons of record.

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 2 and 3 are still objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments filed 8/30/2004 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive.

Applicant argues that the Narahashi reference fails to teach or even suggest the use of a virtual inductor in a group delay adjustment circuit. Examiner totally disagrees with this statement. The adjustable delay 9 in Fig. 1 of Narahashi can be read as the claimed group delay adjuster since the adjustable delay 9 is functionally equivalent to the claimed group delay adjuster. The virtual inductor recited in the claim 1 only represents a name. According to MPEP 2111, during patent examination, the pending claims must be given the broadest reasonable interpretation consistent with the specification. You read the claims in light of the specification. But you do not incorporate the limitations in the specification into the claims. We only give patentable weight to the limitations positively recited in the claims. We absolutely don't give patentable weight to the limitations recited in the specification but not positively recited in the claims. If applicant wants patentable weights given to the term such as "virtual inductor", then such term must be clearly defined in the claim.

Conclusion

THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within

TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.

Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Henry Choe whose telephone number is (571) 272-
